Dear Nelson:

I appreciate very much your letter of September 7, 1961 concerning [redacted]. We will have one of our people get in contact with [redacted] in the very near future to obtain his views. Unfortunately, our general situation is such that, in all probability, we will be able to offer him little in the way of an employment opportunity.

I am, of course, most appreciative of your kind comments about me. Whenever you are in Washington and have a convenient opportunity, I would certainly enjoy seeing you again.

With very best wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,

ALLEN W. DULLES
Director

NELSON A. ROCKEFELLER
GOVERNOR

September 7, 1961

Dear Allen:

I am passing along the attached to you for what it may be worth. It comes to me from Hugh Morrow, who is a very knowledgeable and reliable Washington writer, who was formerly with Senator Keating and Senator Ives and is now working with me.

Your prediction to the Governors' Conference two years ago about nuclear blackmail certainly has proven to be a thousand percent true. Your friends are with you and are deeply grateful to you for what you have done for your country.

With very best wishes,

Sincerely,
